

BARRINGTON YOUTH FOOTBALL, INC.
FLAG FOOTBALL COACHING PRIVILAGES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

As a Coach you must follow all rules, regulations, and bylaws of Barrington Youth Football, Inc. ("BYF") while embracing the spirit of the game as stated in the Code of Conduct. Every decision you make as a coach should be, first, in the best interest of the players and, second, in the desire to win, Helping young people develop physically, psychologically, and socially is and should be more important than the victory. As a Coach, you should instill in your players a desire to do their best, to pursue excellence, to respect their teammates as well as their opponents, to play fairly, and to try to win. If these objectives are met, your players and you will be successful regardless of the outcome of the game.

CODE OF CONDUCT

As a BYF Coach, you must act in accordance with the Flag Football Coaching Privileges and Responsibilities defined herein. In addition, you should conduct yourself with the following in mind:

- Respect each player's individual skills and needs. Every child plays and important role on your team.
- You are a teacher of the game. How you teach is as important as what you teach. It is your responsibility to teach all your players the fundamentals of the game by committing to the required practice time and game time each week.
- Be fair in game situations, position selections and player discipline.
- Put the player's safety and health considerations above your personal desire to win.
- Show respect for the officials and strive to instill that respect in your players as well.
- The use of abusive language, profanity, tobacco, drugs, or alcohol is strictly prohibited at practices or games.
- The use of alcohol prior to or during a game is strictly prohibited. Remember that you are a youth football coach and that the game is for the children. HAVE FUN!
- Promote sportsmanship amount your players towards teammates, opposing players and referees.

VIOLATIONS OF ANY OF THE ABOVE RULES MAY RESULT IN, BUT ARE NOT LIMITED TO, SUSPENSION OR DISMISSAL AT THE SOLE DISCRETION OF BARRINGTON YOUTH FOOTBALL, INC.

I have read and understand this document and agree that I will abide by and be accountable for all rules, regulations and/or guidelines therein.

SIGNATURE:
PRINTED NAME:
DATE:	